

Community Catering Southern Highlands

Thanks for your interest in Community Catering Southern Highlands. There are a number of catering companies in the Highlands. One of the best reasons to choose us, aside from fabulous food, is every dollar you spend with Community Catering goes back into helping Meals on Wheels give people in this community the nutritious and delicious meals they deserve, and at affordable prices.

Catering menus to suit all tastes

Over the years, we've catered for a wide range of organisations, events and individuals in the Highlands. Everything from three course sit down meals for 300 people, catering for weddings and wakes, lunch platters for organisations, baked treats for locals putting on a morning or arvo tea and everything else in between.

We must be serving up some great food as we get many happy returns, in a good way! Local businesses, schools and organisations like the Council, public and private schools, and local individuals, just keep coming back.
